The YCBC is pleased to announce two seminars on defensive play, to be presented by Chris Duckworth, on Sunday 27th September 2009

and

Sunday 1st November 2009

These will be suitable for all club players who would like to improve their defensive skills.

Remember, you defend a hand twice as often as you are declarer!

The seminars will be very interactive, with lots of card play at the table and handouts to take away afterwards.

2.00pm to 6.00pm each day

Cost, inclusive of half-time refreshments:

£10 club members, £12 non-members, £5 students

Seminar 1, on 27th September, will concentrate on signals and discards, which card to choose to help partner most and to maximize your defensive tricks

Seminar 2, on 1st November, will discuss different defensive strategies, when to be active and when passive

You can attend one or both, but both will improve your game the most!

Pre-booking is not essential, but we need an idea of numbers, so please put your name on the list on the noticeboard in the bar, or tell Gordon, if you plan to come along.
